INTEREST SESSIONS

MONDAY AUGUST 15,
TUESDAY, AUGUST 16,
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 17

Making the Transition: Getting Your Head and Heart Ready 1:30-2:45 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 308-310

Parents and family members will get a chance to sit with university leadership and hear from them about "Making the Transition" with your student during their first semester on campus. Everyone is welcome to attend! This conversation with parents and family members will cover topics including the personal experiences of university leadership, what you and your student can expect to feel the first year, how best to support your student. This has been a favorite session for parents from previous years, so please come with your questions and conversation points!

Key Communities Welcome 2-2:45 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 324

Key Communities Welcome is open to all Parents, Families, and Supporters for Key Community students. The Key Communities are learning communities designed to honor the identities and strengths of each student to foster students transition to and through the University. The Key Communities are one of the most diverse communities on campus, made up of students and staff who are committed to creating and nurturing inclusive environments that welcome, value and affirm the diverse identities of our students. During our time together, you will learn more about the Key Communities program structure and outcomes. In addition, you will have the opportunity to meet the Key team and ask any questions you may have.

Campus Tours for Parents, Families, and Guests Tours leave at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. • Lory Student Center Theatre

For parents and family members who have not had a chance to tour CSU's campus, Transfer Transition Leaders from Orientation and Transition Programs will be available at 11am and 2 p.m. to provide those to anyone who would like to join in. Tours will depart from the Lory Student Center Theatre, where the Parent and Family Lounge is also occurring. Tours will lead parents and family members through the main areas of campus, and include historical facts, information about where offices are located, and more.

 Tours will be guided in both English and Spanish each day.*

Academic Transitions 2-2:45 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 312

In this session, staff from the Outreach and Support Programs office will discuss themes for a student's academic transition and ways that parents and families can help their student during their transition. They will also provide an overview of campus academic initiatives and resources designed to support student success.
