TRANSFER INTEREST SESSIONS
Attend the following optional interest sessions that will provide you with unique information about transitioning to CSU.

Campus Tour
2 p.m. • Meet on the Lory Student Center Plaza
For transfer students who have not had a chance to tour CSU’s campus, Transfer Transition Leaders will be available to provide those to anyone who would like to join in. Tours will depart from the Lory Student Center Plaza. Tours will lead students through the main areas of campus, and include historical facts, information about where offices are located, and more.

Joining the Ram Family – Why You Belong Here (Adult Learner and Student Veterans)
2-3 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 312
Join Adult Learner and Veteran Services for an open conversation on what it means to be a part of the Ram Family. In this session, we’ll tackle topics like imposter syndrome, how to make your mark here, and what you need to be a successful CSU Ram.
CSU Health Network
3-3:30 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 304-306
This session will give the students a brief overview of the services offered at CSU Health Network, outline new student requirements and recommendations, and will give students tips on transitioning to college life and taking care of their mental and physical health at CSU.

Do Something CSU
3-3:30 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 308-310
Getting involved on campus can help you find friends, contribute to academic success, and make college more fun! Come and learn about the various pathways to involvement at CSU including: student organizations, leadership opportunities, sport clubs and recreation, campus employment, fraternities and sororities, and so much more! So join us, Do Something, and enhance your CSU experience!

Education Abroad: Transfer Student Seminar in Costa Rica Info Session
3-3:30 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 312
Are you interested in studying abroad during your time at CSU? Did you know there is an opportunity to go to Costa Rica in January 2025 that is open specifically to transfer students? Join Education Abroad as they discuss information on this program, many other opportunities offered here at CSU, and how they can support you in the process!

Outdoor Programs
3:30-4 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 308-310
Are you interested in the outdoors? Do you want to explore the mountains and public lands of Colorado? Outdoor Programs (OP) offers over 50 trips, classes, and special events throughout the year for students to get outside, learn skills, and meet other students interested in outdoor recreation.

Crushing It – Leveling up Your Wellbeing for a Successful First Year
3:30-4 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 304-306
Come hear from the CSU Health Network and gain insights on preparing for change and transition, knowing your stress threshold and how to boost your stress awareness, and knowing where and when to seek help. The purpose of this session is to provide a more realistic and informed view about preparing for the transition to CSU.

Successful Student Study Strategies (TILT)
4-4:30 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 304-306
As a transfer student, you’re already aware of the need to approach learning differently in college than in high school. Join staff members from The Institute for Learning and Teaching (TILT) to review study strategies of successful students and learn about the academic resources available to you here at CSU.

Adult Learner and Student Veterans Basic Needs Resource Fair
3-5 p.m. • Adult Learner and Veteran Services, Lory Student Center Room 282
Get connected to local resources before school starts to help ease your transition into student life. Rams Against Hunger will help you address food insecurity, ways to get involved in campus, and how to budget with Canvas Credit Union, will all be present to help you learn more about how to be a CSU Ram.
Career Center: Creating Your Experience for CSU and Beyond
4:30-5 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 304-306
This session will focus on learning ways to explore career during your time as a student and finding authentic ways to make connections with your community as it relates to career.

Learn More about Fraternity and Sorority Life
4:30-5 p.m. • Lory Student Center Room 308-310
Are you interested in learning more about Fraternity and Sorority Life? Many transfer students are unaware that Fraternity and Sorority Life can be a fun and enriching experience on campus. Whether you were involved at your previous institution or you are curious if Fraternity and Sorority Life is for you, this session will give you an overview of the different chapters and events happening here at CSU.

Night @ the Rec
5:30-8:30 p.m. • Student Recreation Center
The Rec is a space where you can relax through play and movement, serving as a central fixture of campus community and student support. Night at the Rec is an opportunity to discover the ways in which the Rec can enhance your CSU experience. We invite you to explore our facilities, connect with our staff, and learn about the programs and services we offer. Examples of what you can expect at the event include: a pool party (bring your swimsuit!), climbing wall demos, group exercise sessions, a Sport Club fair, cornhole, knockout, guided meditation, and massage chairs. We will also be hosting drawings for those interested and will be offering limited-edition t-shirts commemorating the event.

Ram Welcome Carnival

Don’t miss out on free snacks, prizes, and a great time!

SATURDAY, AUGUST 17

Hike to the “A”
9:10-30 a.m. • Bus pickup at the Iris and Michael Smith Alumni Center
Join Outdoor Programs, Fort Collins Natural Areas, and the CSU Alumni Association for an opportunity to hike to the top of the “A,” a symbol of CSU history and pride since 1923. The first bus leaves campus at 9 a.m. and the last bus leaves at 10:30 a.m. and will return students to campus after completing your hike. Water bottle and closed-toed shoes are required for this 4 mile and 500ft of elevation gain hike. After the hike, join us in decorating your own miniature ‘A’ to commemorate your participation in one of CSU’s oldest and most-loved traditions!

We Ride! An Exploration of Transportation Options at CSU
1-4 p.m. • Hartshorn Lawn
Welcome to CSU, a Platinum Bicycle-Friendly University! Stop by our stations to learn more about all of your transportation options, register your bike, and get a free light, helmet, and bell so you are ready to travel safely. Meet The Spoke, CSUPD, Parking and Transportation Services, and our community partners. You’ll also learn about transit, e-bike and e-scooter share, skateboarding, and all ways to get around campus safely.
